

Letter to The Canberra Times
Unpublished

Dear Editor

For his first appearance on the hospital steps, Prince George chose some designer's bunny blanket (cost $25). For his second spot riding in the capsule, he was in a soft baby wrap ($75) from someone else, made of probably/possibly/partially Australian merino wool.

We had to be in there somewhere. Right, that's done. Back to the serious business of the Australian Republic.

Sarah Brasch
Women for an Australian Republic
Weston